

ENVIRONMENTAL FEDERATION OF OKLAHOMA

Laura Worthen Lodes

Mrs. Lodes is a degreed chemical engineer, licensed in over 20 states, with more than 23 years of experience in environmental consulting providing multimedia support to a variety of industries. She has specialized experience supporting the oil and gas industry, refining, foundries, and other general manufacturing. She has extensive experience in air quality permitting experience preparing prevention of Significant Deterioration (PSD) air permit applications, Title V permit applications, air permit applications and air dispersion modeling analyses for various industries across a variety of states including Oklahoma, Texas, and New Mexico. In addition, she has extensive experience preparing and certifying Spill Prevention Control and Countermeasure Plans. Laura has also served as an appointee of the governor on Oklahoma Air Quality Advisory Council since 2005.