Chris England

Chris England joined Veriforce in 2000. Based out of Mandeville, LA. Chris began his career with PEC Safety (now Veriforce) primarily involved in Safety and Compliance in the Oil and Gas sector. After a decade of work in the field with Clients and Contractors Chris was promoted to Sales Director. The next few years was spent positioning and building PEC Safety to eventually purchase Veriforce.

As the business continued to grow Chris was promoted to Vice President of Sales. Veriforce's acquisition of ComplyWorks and CHAS has expanded the business globally and Chris has been involved in those endeavors.

In 2018 Chris was promoted to Sr. Vice President of Global Sales. Chris was responsible for helping start and grow our industry leading Contractor Management solution. Veriforce has grown tremendously over Chris' career and has expanded into a world class company serving world class clients globally.

In 2023 Chris was named Sr Vice President of Global Business Development as his role has expanded to continue to grow Veriforce's global network.
