

ENVIRONMENTAL FEDERATION OF OKLAHOMA

Ken Ede

Dr. Kenneth F. Ede is the President of KFE & Associates, LLC. During his tenure at Oklahoma State University-Tulsa, Ken served as the Director for the Environmental Science Graduate Program for OSU-Tulsa and as the Assistant Dean of Engineering and Director of the Helmerich Research Center (HRC). Dr. Ede is a Certified Hazardous Materials Manager (CHMM). In addition to his academic contributions to Oklahoma State University,

Ken served 18 years as the Environmental Health & Safety Manager for American Airlines, Inc.

Dr. Ede's thrust areas of research includes Environmental Chemistry, PFAS (Per & Polyfluoroalkyl Substances), Hazardous Waste Management, Industrial Environmental Sustainability, and Industrial Ecology.

Dr. Ede serves as a member of the following committees:

- Hazardous Waste Management Advisory Council for the State of Oklahoma
- Environmental Federation of Oklahoma (EFO) Hazardous/Solid Waste Committee
- State of Oklahoma PFAS Committee
- In addition, Dr. Ede has authored numerous articles on PFAS and directed and coauthored the first PFAS sampling guidelines for the State of Oklahoma.

