What is the Environmental Federation of Oklahoma?

The Environmental Federation of Oklahoma, Inc. (EFO) is a 501(c)(6) non-profit organization providing Oklahoma companies a voice in the formulation and implementation of state and federal environmental laws, regulations and policies.

What is the Goal of EFO?

EFO's goal is to ensure that a balance is reached between protecting Oklahoma's natural resources and responsible economic growth. Achieving this goal will lead to an enhanced environment and an improved quality of life for all the citizens of Oklahoma.

Why Should My Company Join EFO?

Each year the number of environmental laws and regulations multiplies. It is virtually impossible for any one company to keep up with all the proposed and adopted changes, and even more difficult for that company to be heard by the decision makers.

EFO assists companies in having their common concerns heard by the Legislature and provides comments and testimony to administrative agencies regarding guidelines and regulations.

EFO provides educational opportunities such as seminars, workshops, information exchanges, and regulatory updates to assist you in the day-to-day operations for your company.

How Can My Company Get Involved in EFO?

Start by becoming a member. Then your company can be involved with EFO by attending seminars and the annual meeting and by serving on one or more of the committees on the back of this brochure.

Unite with other EFO members to address relevant environmental issues facing industry in Oklahoma. Enhance the opportunity to share common concerns with your peers and policy makers.

Provide member companies an opportunity to have direct interaction with regulatory staff and legislators.
